Army employees are protected from unlawful discrimination. Army employees and applicants for employment are covered by Federal laws to safeguard them from discrimination and harassment based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age (40 or older), disability (mental and physical), genetic information (individual or family history), pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions, and/or reprisal for protected EEO activity, or that create a "chilling effect" on EEO activity ("per se reprisal").

Army employees or applicants who believe they have been subjected to discrimination, harassment, or retaliation or reprisal should contact the local EEO office.

To file a timely INFORMAL EEO COMPLAINT (PRE-COMPLAINT) contact the EEO Office within 45 calendar days of the alleged discriminatory act.
